

Congratulations to Carol Williams who is now an official member of the Glendora Police Department Auxiliary. Basically, the Glendora Police Auxiliary are a group of trained individuals who can be called upon to do a variety of duties, including patrolling the city, assist in traffic control, assist sworn police officers, be available to be called upon during an emergency or in the event of a disaster in the community, record keeping, and assisting with office personnel within the Police Department as well as participate in various community services. We're happy that you are also a Kiwanianne.
