President's Message

Happy Independence Day, Kiwanianne! It's summer. It's hot. And it's time to get in touch with your inner self - the one that likes to relax. Even though we aren't meeting in July and August, life still goes on in Kiwanianneville. We still need volunteers for Sundaes in the Park, so come join us and scoop ice cream at Finkbiner Park while listening to some great tunes. Find the schedule in this newsletter and let Kandy Nunn know you will help.

Your board will be meeting this summer to start planning for fall. We are discussing new service projects for the future and creating new fund raising events. I hope when President-Elect Kandy calls you to ask you to serve in some capacity, you'll "Saddle Up." She'll be busy with Heidi Balch getting trained to be the best ever leaders. And Lt. Governor Debbie Deal will be getting ready to put on her spurs to lead Division 35! We have a great group of women working to serve the community. Please think about others you know in the community who can also help and invite them to our September 1 meeting.

I'm just returning from a trip to Hawaii. I thought of you while basking in the sun and I smiled.

Happy Trails to You!
President Pat

New Kiwanis Sign!!

We are Kiwanianne, hear us roar! Your Board has remedied the problem outside of the Continental Restaurant. At one point only Rotary and Lions Club signs were displayed, but no Kiwanis sign! Well, the Board recently purchased a new logo sign and plans are to install it on the Continental's sign on Route 66 very soon. Now, everyone will know when and where we meet.

Kiwaniannes Have Talent!

Do you know you've heard of "America's Got Talent"....but have you ever heard of "Kiwaniannes Have Talent"? At our Country Fair meeting on June 16, we certainly found out about all the talent our club members have. Everything from beautiful needlepoint creations by Kandi Nunn and Heidi Balch, to sensational quilts from Pat Rasmussen and Tina Novo were displayed. Penni Reilley has a fantastic talent for painting, and her canvases were just outstanding. We had yummy desserts thanks to Linda Price and Becky Harris. We also had beautiful plant and flower arrangements by Ida Fracasse and Kathy Morey. Rona Lunde shared a beautiful dress she made, and we even had crazy photos from yours truly. Unfortunately, my camera was not cooperating that night and I was unable to take more photos. I apologize. Thanks to all of you who contributed to this wonderful evening!

Kiwanis International Convention

Look who was spotted at the Kiwanis International Convention. Our very own Rona and the Debs. All attended the convention on behalf of Kiwaniannes, going to the various conferences and the general sessions. Colin Powell was the key note speaker there. If asked, Rona and the Debs will tell you anything about the convention, but the rest is "What happens in Vegas stays in Vegas".

101 Uses for a Bandana

At the June 2 meeting, Mary Jane Bettfreund and the Bandana Girls gave a program on the best uses for a Bandana. Kathy Morey used hers as a headband or to tie her pony tail. Tricia Gomer used it as a ditty bag for girl scout outings. Gege Parry used hers as a trail marker or signal flag while on the trail. Debbie Deal used it as part of her pirate costume. Other uses included mask, sink drain plug, coffee filter, emergency lamp wick or toilet paper, or just to keep your face warm and protected from bugs while hiking. Tina Novo used hers as a puppet. Who knew a bandana could be so useful? President Pat thinks it just goes to show you how talented our Bandana Girls really are!

Congratulations are In Order!

Lois Sparling has a new grandson. Ask to see the photos of her darling little boy. Art and Sarah Ludwick received honorary doctorates from Cal Poly Pomona for their work with the University. Debbie Deal received a Distinguished Kiwanian Award for her volunteer service. Debbie Schmidt recently renewed her wedding vows. Helen Otto received a Woman of Achievement Award in June for her decades of service to the Glendora Community.

President Pat's Bandana Girl

President Pat honored Becky Harris at the June 16 meeting for all of the work she did to make the Yard Sale a huge success. The club earned over $1,600 for turning trash into treasure. Thanks, Becky for all of your hard work and for the use of your beautiful home.

Happy Birthday to our July and August celebrants!

Lynda Siminske Moves to Nevada

Lynda with her Goodbye cake

At our June 2 meeting, we bid farewell to Lynda Siminske. Linda and her husband are moving to Nevada to be near their children. Lynda has been so involved in the community that it's going to be pretty hard to "fill her shoes". I'm guessing that after a brief break, once she and her husband have settled down and finished all their unpacking, that she will be right back in the swing of things....joining clubs and intermingling with the community.

We wish her and her family good luck and we will miss seeing her around town.
