

"Team Glendora Kiwaniannes....Your category is History....Your question is....Who is buried in Grant's Tomb?"

And so began Glendora's Annual Trivia Challenge. Of course the questions, had they been as simple as the one stated above, would have made every team who participated, a winner. But alas, the REAL questions were a bit more challenging - i.e. "Who's real name is Calvin Brodes?...why Snoop Dog, of course (doesn't everyone know this!?) Our Kiwanianne team of Becky Harris, John Bettfreund (better half of Mary Jane), and Sharon McConnell rose to that challenge and made us very proud. Unfortunately, they were eliminated but they put up a heck of a fight! Our team was terrific, it was challenging and fun.

Representing Jan's Towing, were three more of our fellow Kiwaniannes - Linda Price, Rona Lunde, and President Debbie Deal. They too, found the questions quite challenging and unfortunately were eliminated as well. However, it was a terrific evening. Of course, EVERYONE at OUR table knew every answer to every question asked, but (sigh) were not counted by the judges!

We even had our very own Kiwanianne Doris Blum as one of the judges. We tried to bribe her with food and stuff, but no matter what we tried, she stuck to her guns and said "No! go back to your table, sit down and be good!" ...so we did.

Pam Richards helped put together the wonderful Opportunity Prizes. So as you can see, Kiwaniannes....Kiwaniannes....Kiwaniannes....once again in the forefront of a wonderful fundraiser. (P.S. $22,000 was raised for the Library!)
